

Dissolved Oxygen (DO)

- Like land animals, aquatic life needs DO to live.
- DO dissolves readily from the atmosphere at the surface of the stream until the stream is saturated.
- Once oxygen is dissolved into the stream the oxygen diffuses and distributes throughout the stream.
- All trout species need 5-6 mg/L of DO to live.

